A collection of wine bottles is displayed on a white surface. Each bottle is decorated with a festive Santa Claus or elf figurine. The figurines are dressed in red and white Santa suits or red and green elf outfits, some with long red beards and pointed hats. The wine bottles are of various brands, including Casabella Sweet Chilli and Sauvignon Blanc. A yellow sign in the foreground provides information about the donation.

A woman in a blue dress is standing on the left side of the frame, looking down at something in her hands. She is wearing a necklace and a watch.

An older man in a dark suit and tie is seated at a table, looking towards the left. He has a name tag on his lapel.

A small, red and white Santa Claus figurine is placed on a table in the foreground, next to a bottle of wine.

A man in a light-colored shirt and tie is standing in the background, looking towards the right. He appears to be a waiter or staff member.
